CABERNET SAUVIGNON

points WINE REPORT

“Immediately opens with fantastic aromatics of freshly crushed cassis, black cherries, espresso, molasses, bell pepper, savory herbs and sweet spices. This is impressive for its generous supple texture and round polished tannins. The finish is layered with dark fruits, herbs and spices which leave a lasting impression. Overall, this is a delicious wine from a fantastic vintage, that will be accessible early on. A terrific effort from winemaker Michael Scholz.” - 2015

“The Rutherford bottling is a delicious Cabernet: very supple in texture, ripely flavored (cassis, cherry, blackberry), lightly woody (toast, tobacco, vanilla), and long and moderately tannic on the finish.” - 2015
