"A fresh, lemony white with lots of citrus and hints of green apple and pear. It's medium-to full-bodied with plenty of fruit and a flavorful finish, yet it remains fresh. Drink now."

"A restrained vintage of St. Supéry's sauvignon, this takes time to come out of its mineral grip. With air, it shows clean lemon flavors edged with grapefruit pith, the fruit round enough to tame the mineral acidity. A summery white for a Cobb chicken salad."
